Claims 1-24 are presented for examination.

Applicants' amendment and information disclosure statement filed November 4, 2003 have been received and entered.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-22 are allowable.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim 24 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter and is not being examined on the merits.

The phrase "use of" in claim 24 is not an acceptable claim language term used in the United States Patent Office. Applicants may wish to amend claim 24 to recite "a method of use" or "a composition".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

Art Unit: 1614

Claim 23 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by France Patent (L), hereby known as Renault et al.

Renault et al. teach piperidine derivatives and their therapeutic uses (see the enclosed abstract). Note one of the piperidine derivatives, the R group is 4-quinazolinyl, which includes one of the applicants' compounds, 1-[2-(1,1-dimethylethyl)-4-quinazolinyl]-3-(4-piperidinyl)-1-propanone, and is formulated into compositions. Clearly, the cited reference anticipates the applicants' instant composition the same compound. Clearly, the cited reference teaches the applicants' instant composition is old and well-known in the art, therefore, the instant composition is unpatentable.

Claim 23 is not allowed.
